

Privacy Policy

We Care About Your Privacy

RESA Inc. respects the privacy of our online visitors and donors. We do not require you to register in order to view our site, but you are welcome to voluntarily provide information. There are times, such as when you donate online or use our online advocacy tool, we will collect specific information, such as your name, mailing address, zip/postal codes, and/or e-mail address. If you choose to receive communications from us by mail or electronically, informing you of upcoming RESA events, or volunteer and support opportunities, you may provide personally identifiable data.

No Computer Tracking of Identifiable Information

Although RESA does not monitor your personal activity on our site, we do track aggregated, anonymous user data to evaluate the effectiveness of our Web site and help us improve our service..

Security of the Information You Provide Us

When you donate online, RESA, Inc does not store your credit card information. Your payments are done by you or your designee. If you are uncomfortable with donating online, you may also contribute by calling (240) 514-RESA (7372) or by contacting at resaforwomen@gmail.com. If you send us a check, your information is secured and is never shared.

Terms and Conditions

This Web site is a complimentary information service offered by RESA. To provide free access to this Web site, we must require visitors to agree to certain terms and conditions.

Links to Other Sites

Our Web site contains numerous links to sites developed by other companies and organizations. Be aware that other sites' privacy policies may differ from ours and RESA has no influence over third-party privacy policies.

Notice to Parents

Children are welcome on the RESA Web site. While here, they can learn more about us, and when appropriate, locate opportunities to serve their communities through our training programs and volunteer activities. Although our Web site currently does not have material directed specifically toward children, RESA supports the guidelines for interactive electronic media published by the Children's Advertising Review Unit of the Better Business Bureau.

Notice to Children Younger than Age 13

Do not send any information about yourself to us, such as your name, address, or e-mail address. We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children age 13 or younger. In the event that we learn that we have collected any personal information from a child without verification of parental consent, we will delete that information from our database as quickly as possible.

To Modify Your Mailings

You have a choice in how often we contact you, whether by mail or e-mail. We value your support and care about your time, and want you to feel good about the support you provide to help people in need. We realize that you may not be able to help each time we ask. Or, that you may prefer to make a charitable gift only at certain times of the year. Like many people, you may also be concerned about the volume of mail you receive and the impact it has on our environment. We value your support and your trust and therefore, we want to offer you options that will enhance our relationship.

To modify your mailing preferences, please email us at resaforwomen@gmail.com and tell us the following:

1. The name and address that appears on the mailing pieces you receive from us.
2. If you would like to receive periodic e-mail updates.
3. How many times you would like to receive mail from us. The Choices are: No change in the frequency of mailings; mailings six times a year; mailings four times a year; mailings two times a year; a mailing once a year; or no mailings.

Notification of Changes to Privacy Policy

RESA Inc. reserves the right to amend this privacy policy as necessary.

Please watch this space for future changes.
